Updates

KMC held its Annual General Meeting at the Izaak Walton Killam Library in Yarmouth on September 9th. We were delighted to welcome members of the public, KMC members, and visitors from l'Association des Acadiens Métis Souriquois, both in person and virtually.

An engaging presentation on Acadian Métis basket weaving was given by Daniel Thimot. Following the meeting, a basket created by Daniel was won by one of the attendees.

A reminder that your annual dues have increased to $25, effective July 1, 2025. This yearly payment, which supports the smooth operation of the KMC office, is due on January 1, 2026.

New Publication

Colonial recognition on trial: Keith Boucher and the structural violence of Indigenous identity adjudication in Canada, was recently published in the Griffith Law Review journal. This article, written by Sébastien Malette and KMC President Jo-Anne Muise Lawless, looks at the challenges faced in the judicial system by non-status and Métis people. Anyone interested in obtaining a copy of the article may contact our office.

New Board Members

We are delighted to welcome the following to the KMC board of directors:

- Simone Comeau
- Gary Doucet
